HopeForBrighterTomorrows.org

As a mom of a child with mental illness, Kay Warren often felt overwhelmed by the lack of mental health resources and the time it took to find reputable information. Hope forBrighter Tomorrows, the mental health non-profit she founded, created a website where people can come and easily access trustworthy and helpful material without having to spend hours searching the Internet. Please visit the specific mental health pages on this website: ADHD, Anxiety, Bipolar Disorder, Borderline Personality Disorder, Depression, Eating Disorders, Grief, Obsessive Compulsive Disorder, Schizophrenia, Students, Substance Use Disorder, Suicide, Support for Families and Friends, Trauma.

Mental Health Resource Guide for Individuals and Families

The Mental Health Resource Guide for Individuals and Families is provided free of charge. It includes basic education about common mental illnesses, answers to frequently asked questions, and helpful information for families on how to support their loved ones with mental illness. It is designed to serve as a simplified reference guide and should not be utilized as a diagnostic tool. Visit hopeforbrightertomorrows.org/breathecalls to download the Resource Guide.

Saddleback Church's Hope for Mental Health Community

The Hope for Mental Health Community was designed as a time to connect with others who have mental health challenges, learn from professionals in the fields of psychology, theology, and wellness, and gain spiritual strength from God and each other. You can view videos of previous Hope for Mental Health Community events at hopeforbrightertomorrows.org/videos.

How to Navigate a Mental Health Crisis Seminar

This recorded seminar, hosted by the Saddleback Church Hope for Mental Health Ministry, will give you the tools to recognize the precipitating events leading up to a crisis, what you need to know to help yourself or your loved one through the crisis, how to follow up afterwards, as well as ways to connect with on-going support. You can view How to Navigate a Mental Health Crisis at hopeforbrightertomorrows.org/videos.
